Zach Rice Announces Chairman and Treasurer

HENDRICKS COUNTY, IN – Zach Rice filed his statement of organization for his campaign committee last week. The Chairman of Rice for District 40 is Dr. Bill Maxam, and Carolyn Miller was appointed Treasurer.

Dr. Bill Maxam, a resident of Brownsburg, was a professor of Political Science for 32 years at Indiana State University. He was a congressional aide for six years, including serving as chief-of-staff to former Congressman Ed Pease. In addition, Dr. Maxam has been honored three times from three Indiana Governors with the Sagamore of the Wabash, an award given to persons that have contributed greatly to Hoosier heritage.

Dr. Maxam stated that he is pleased to be a part of Zach Rice's team. "As his supervisor in Washington D.C., I found Zach to be intelligent, energetic, and politically knowledgeable," explained Dr. Maxam. "Zach is the type of person District 40, Hendricks County, and the State of Indiana need for our future."

Carolyn Miller is a life-long Hendricks County resident and has been a precinct committeewoman for over 30 years. Ms. Miller is a former Township Trustee, past President of the Republican Women's Club, and also served on the Welfare Board.

"Zach Rice is the best choice to represent our interests at the Statehouse, because he does not have any political entanglements that would stop him from putting the people first," stated Ms. Miller. "He is the right choice for our community."

Zach Rice stated that he was fortunate to have the support of these influential Hoosiers. "Dr. Maxam and Ms. Miller are well-respected community leaders who I look forward to working with to communicate our message of common sense conservative reform," proclaimed Mr. Rice. "Their leadership and support will prove invaluable as we work towards victory in the District 40 Republican Party Primary on May 6th."
